	ection with the pending Foreign Assistance Authorization Act, during the day sat in with the Administration team in Minority Whip Leslie Arends' (R., Ill.) Capitol office to be available for rendering such assistance as called upon.
Included in the group were: Carlyle Maw, Jim Michaels, Sam Goldberg, Governor Holton, Alex Schnee, all of State Department, and Dennis Neill, OGC/AID. As the State Department and AID were pushing very hard for the bill, they were hopeful that our plan for a colloquy between Chairman Lucien N. Nedzi, Special Subcommittee on Intelligence, House Armed Services Committee and the House floor managers, together with a suitable statement in the conference report and a statement accompanying the President's approval of the bill, would provide access on the provision limiting intelligence activities.
